Color For Change

What does "My Hero" look like to your child? Sit down and ask them. Help your child draw their hero and enter our Color For Change coloring contest. The winners from each age division will win a bike! Help us spread some cheer by sharing your child's "Hero" with us. Don't forget to submit the artwork release form as well. Click below to download it.

COLOR FOR CHANGE

Let's End Child Abuse
River City Family Connections

Who: River City Family Connections is holding a coloring contest for Child Abuse Awareness Month in April. The contest is open to two different age groups: Jr. K-2nd and 3rd-5th.

What: To celebrate children and healthy family dynamics during Child Abuse Awareness Month, we are hosting a coloring contest titled "My Hero". We want to know what "My Hero" looks like and means to you. This can be a(n) pet, parent, friend, teacher, idol, or anything/anyone else you can imagine.

Where: Artwork must be mailed or emailed by April 15th.
Mail: P.O. Box 626 Yankton, SD 57078
Email: rcfamilyconnections@gmail.com

When: All artwork and releases must be mailed or emailed by April 15th. All entries must have an artwork release signed by a parent and current contact information. Winners will be chosen by River City Family Connections and contacted by April 20th.
